Dr. William Quandt presents:

Prospects for Peace in the Holy Land

November 19, 2013
Physical Sciences 130
6-8 PM

Dr. Quandt served on the National Security Council for the Nixon and Carter Administrations and actively participated in the Israel-Egypt Camp David accords. He is presently professor emeritus at University of Virginia and has authored multiple books, including the landmark diplomatic study, Peace Process: American Diplomacy and the Arab-Israeli Conflict Since 1967.

Funded by the Hostler Institute on World Affairs & Sponsored by the International Security and Conflict Resolution Program, the Center for Islamic and Arabic Studies, and the Olive Tree Initiative-SDSU